MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : PB/NSC Coordinator

SUBJECT : Presidential Briefings

25X1

1. Your last two Presidential Briefings have dealt almost exclusively with events related to the situation [redacted] This is understandable and likely to remain true for so long as the crises continue. In the meantime we have been relying on the PDB, memoranda to the President, etc. to deal with other issues which you, and the President, might normally discuss in a briefing context. [redacted]

2. Your next briefing is on 12 March and your first Pre-Brief (should you want to have one) is next Wednesday, 5 March. I am not sending any material this weekend; rather what follows is a list of possible [redacted] topics for either a) discussion at a Pre-Brief to determine if you want to pursue further, or b) development into possible briefings or PDB-type annexes. Please note your preferences:
